

ORCA Tap to Pay:
Every Card is Welcome Aboard

Announcing Tap to Pay on ORCA

Starting Monday, February 23

ORCA will accept credit card payments on public transit in
Puget Sound Region

Tap Credit or Debit Cards from Participating Brands

Every Card is Welcome Aboard

With Tap to Pay on ORCA, it will be easier than ever to pay for transit fares.

Riders can tap a credit or debit card to pay, or tap a phone or watch using Apple Pay, Google Pay, or Samsung Pay.

Now every card is welcome aboard.

Just tap any credit or debit card to ride.

Key Benefits

Reduce wait times to buy fare and board for large events and peak travel times.

Allow infrequent riders to travel more easily.

Streamlines fare collection operations by reducing non-ORCA payment methods like cash, paper tickets and transfers, and flash passes.

Account Types

Adult Fares

Tap to Pay customers are charged an Adult fare. ORCA cards will continue to be the best choice for customers who are eligible for reduced fare.

Individual Riders

ORCA business accounts that issue ORCA cards remain the best way for businesses, schools, and institutions to provide streamlined transit benefits with flexible options for their cardholders.

Where to Tap

Bus and Bus Rapid Transit

What to Know

- One Rider Per Card
  - Riders will still need their own card for each trip and cannot pay for multiple riders using one card
- 2hr Transfer Benefit
  - Riders receive the same two-hour ORCA transfer window benefit on most services
- Take Card Out Of Wallet
  - Riders will need to tap cards directly on the readers and will need to take the physical cards out of their wallets to use before they tap
- Digital ORCA Cards in Google Wallet
  - Card readers should default to charging a digital ORCA card when tapped

ORCA cards aren't going anywhere!
